Miss Dorothy D. Frooks Talks on "Votes for Women."

Special to The New York Times.

TANNERSVILLE, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Last Saturday evening a number of the Summer visitors listened with interest to Miss Dorothy D. Frooks, who has been spending the Summer at Saxton, near Sauger-ties, when she delivered an address on "Votes for Women." Miss Frooks is the youngest suffragette in the State, but one of the most enthusiastic.

The most successful event of the week was the entertainment for the benefit of the Tannersville Fire Department, at which Miss Eva Swain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Swain, who are Summer residents of Tannersville, contributed her services as a dancer.

The entertainment and prize waltz at the Cold Spring House on last Friday evening proved to be one of the most successful affairs held there during the present season and attracted a large audience.

Fred Absalam and daughter, Miss May, of New York; Mrs. Fred Wilson of Roslyn, L. I.; Mrs. Raymond Bell and son of Orange, N. Y., are guests at William Schryver's.

Among the latest arrivals at the Hotel Martin are Alex. L. Fryer, Miss Beatrice Lehman, Miss V. Johnson, Thomas Colfax, Edward Bernegger, Mrs. E. Rouse and son, John P. Cafferty, W. L. Samter, O. Ellis, L. Darcolkis, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Mees, Brooklyn; F. Lumhler, H. Peltz, Bayonne, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Taylor, Miss J. W. Catipole, Jersey City, N. J.
